I just listened to "Ten New Songs," on headphones and was totally blown away by the beauty, creativity, restraint, and complexity of your vocal arrangements. I read that you played all the instruments as well and it is one of the best sounding electronic albums I have heard. You have also captured the warmest, most intimate and personal sound on LC's magnificent voice on record. As a former record mixer and producer I am inspired by your work. Bravo, Sharon!

Sharon, we've never met, but I assume you know what I am writing about. The CD arrived last week and is absolutely amazing. I really want to thank both you and Seth for making it happen and also an extra thank you for the little note attached, it meant a lot to Laurie. Your CD has to be the smoothest, most relaxing we have ever listend to, and we both are over the moon with your gift. I did donate to the little girl's fund as I had promised to Seth, so this is all good. Thank you once again, you are fabulous. Take care Dave Haunting melodies and lyrics with appropriate solemnity and cut-to-the-bone emotion for those "wise in time" (though not always so wise in love). To say I'm awaiting more songs sounds greedy, but I'm awaiting more songs.

Hello Sharon, WOW!!! Michael (my partner- who had wanted to see Leonard Cohen perform live since 1968) and I saw you perform with Leonard for the second time last night (in Brisbane) in nearly two years. Brilliant, Amazing, A Huge highlight in our lives (no! this is not pathetic - we do get out!) I am emailing you because I cannot find a link to email Mr Cohen direct . Your voice is amazing and we will look out for your new album. Can you please let Mr Leonard Cohen know of our pure delight of his choice of songs; although Michael would of loved 'Joan Of Arc!!! Thank you so much. Can I suggest that he does a recording (or two!) of his poems. His voice is so extremely evocative. I have written poetry-a book with an aboriginal man- so I do understand the written word. Lastly, we think that Clare Bowditch was a VERY unsuitable choice to support the likes of the Unified Heart Touring Company. Sorry, She was just not up to the quality of the evening. Our sincere respects KateSellen & Michael Stevenson.

Hello Sharon, I was at the concerts at Sofiero, Sweeden 2 years ago and in Odense Denmark in august with my wife and 7 year old daughter. Richard from Seattle's comments (9/4/10) are just so true. Your voice shines with your heart's light and resonates with the whole existential pain laid bare by Cohen's wit. All the musicians and the web sisters are incredible, the total performance transcends the concept of a show. I never imagined attending such a musical event, I will never forget. Can't wait to get your album, wish you all good health and keep up the spirit!

Please know that I have just concluded listening to Leonard Cohen/Live In London for the 1000th time. Although I adore the throaty sound of Leonard Cohen and am always captured by his music, I am soulfully mesmerized by Sharon Robinson and all 'back-up' as well. Sometimes we are so stunned by brilliance that it becomes impossible to remove the CD from its player. The combinations of Sharon, Leonard, and this particular 'back-up' is both elegant and precious to the ears. There is something so special here....music, voice, poetry, connection to audience, and sound civility. I feel so honored to play this music around in circles for these months at a time!--Bruce Brownstein/USA

Dear Sharon, After enjoying Leonard's show in Las Vegas last november, I realized what an asset and a performer you are to his show. Congratulations, you just acquired a loyal new fan. I think you belong in class of Franklin, Houston or even Krall... God bless you..... Respectfully, Paul Stern, president, Toronto Dodge Jeep Chrysler 416-368-6077 bus 416-543-9390 cell

Sharron i have just ordered you new album and have only recently started to really play and here you with Leonard..Although you have always been there. Now I have awakened to your voice that flows from within from the silent sacred heart..I love the way Creation inspires and unfolds her beauty. All kindest thoughts. Alan..looking fowar to receiving the album in a couple of days.

remember hearing LC when i was at university years ago in Canada. He sang Suzanne and I hummed that tune to myself off and on and my imagination took me overseas. Then almost 45 years later in Europe my wife comes home with the DVD from your London Tour. My goodness what a an album! You and His Excellency Mr Cohen and the whole extraordinary band of musicians and the sisters are outstanding. A great concert. An unforgettable experience. But, we would sure like to see it live if you can get everyone together again. Keeping an eye open for such info. Edmond Heard Sharon on LC's tour album. Wow, what a voice. First heard Leonard back in the 60's whilst a student at Ole Miss. Not much of a voice but wow, what a heart.

I was first introduced to Leonard Cohen with his album Songs of Love and Hate in the early '70s, and have been on board the Cohen train ever since. I didn't know Sharon Robinson until I saw her in the Cohen tour in St. Louis, MO, Nov. 2009. The adjectives elude me to express how deeply that whole experience was to me: Cohen, never better! His troupe of nine onstage, all superlative artists in their crafts. Sharon, with the voice of twenty seven angels. I don't know if I will be fortunate enough to see that show again, but now everything else pales in comparison. I've been a Leonard Cohen fan for over 30 years. Now I'm also a Sharon Robinson fan.

I bought the 'Everybody Knows' album having seen Sharon Robinson with Leonard Cohen in Colmar earlier this year and haven't listened to anything else since. The words, the music and the voice are quite simply beautiful.
